

2nd International Symposium on Complications in GI Endoscopy

Course Director: Peter N Meier, MD, FASGE; Hannover/Germany

Scientific Committee: Guido Costamagna, Rome/Italy
Evgeny Fedorov, Moscow/Russia
Ian Gralnek, Haifa/Israel
Fritz Hagenmüller, Hamburg/Germany
Horst Neuhaus, Dusseldorf/Germany
Thomas Rösch, Hamburg/Germany
Peter Siersema, Utrecht/Netherlands
George Triadafilopoulos, Mountain View/USA

Preliminary Programme:

Friday, 17 June, 2011

Session 1: 11:00 – 13:00 h

- Welcome
- Definition: What is a complication?
- How to communicate complications
- Misinterpretations and misestimations of findings as cause of complications
- “My worst case”

Session 2: 14:00 – 16:00 h

- Non-endoscopic complications
- Patient-associated risk factors
- Failure of technical equipment
- “My worst case”

Session 3: 16:30 – 18:30 h

Working groups:

- EMR / ESD
- Colonoscopy
- ERCP
- PEG

Saturday, 18 June, 2011

Session 4: 08:30 - 09:30 h

Reports of the working groups

- EMR / ESD
- Colonoscopy
- ERCP
- PEG

Session 5: 10:00 – 11:30 h

- How to reduce complications in EUS
- How to reduce complications in double balloon enteroscopy
- How to reduce complications in emergency endoscopy
- How to reduce complications in PEG
- "My worst case"

Session 6: 12:00 – 13:30 h

- The role of nurses and logistics in risk management
- The surgeon's role in managing complications
- The role of training
- "My worst case"

