

ESGE Endoscopy Camp 2026 Policies

General Terms and Conditions:

The organisers or hosts of the event cannot accept any liability for personal injury or loss of or damage to the property of ESGE Endoscopy Camp 2026 participants, even during the event or as a result of participation in the event. Please check the validity of your own insurance. Participants acknowledge that no claims for damages can be made against the organiser, not even if the implementation of the event or individual components is impeded or prevented by unforeseen political or economic events or generally by force majeure, or if changes to the programme become necessary due to cancellations by speakers or similar. By registering, participants recognise this reservation. The place of jurisdiction is Munich.

Privacy Policy:

Our company handles all personal data according to the laws of the EU-Data Protection Regulation (EU-GDPR) and the Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG New). For your booking within the above-mentioned congress the collecting, saving and processing of your personal data (name, IP, required data for CME) and your consumer behavior is imperative. This is undertaken solely to enable the organisation and completion of the event. We will collect your data on behalf of the European Society for Gastrointestinal Endoscopy (ESGE), Landwehrstr. 9, 80336 Munich, Germany. Your data will only be passed onto third parties directly involved in the running of the congress and when the organisational procedure makes this necessary (operator, hotel, mobile app, virtual platform). Registration to this congress cannot be processed, if we do not receive your consent. For a complete overview of the applicable privacy policy, see the following link: <https://www.esge.com/privacy-policy>

Cancellation Policy:

All cancellations and amendments must be submitted in writing to the registration company pcma gmbh by email to esgecamp@interplan.de. For cancellations received in writing prior to July 31, 2026, the registration fee (minus 40 EUR processing fee) will be refunded. No refunds will be given after this date.

Photography and Filming:

It is prohibited to take photographs, film or make audio recordings during the sessions without the permission of the organiser. Failure to comply may result in exclusion from the rest of the event. The organiser plans to take photographs and film recordings during the event, which will probably be available for viewing on the homepage (esge.com) afterwards or used via social media to promote the event. As a participant in the event you agree to this unless you object to the recording at the time.

Invoice Changes:

As the invoices are sent automatically, it is unfortunately not possible to change the invoice. Therefore, please make sure that your entries are correct and in accordance with your wishes during the ordering process.

*ESGE reserves the right to reject applications with insufficient documents or incomplete information. In the event of rejection for the aforementioned reasons, the registration fee will only be refunded after deduction of the processing fee of 40 EUR.
