

Curriculum Vitae

Massimo CRESPI † 2015
MD, PhD, FRCP (London), FACG

Emeritus Professor at the National Cancer Institute “Regina Elena”, Roma, Italy

EDUCATION AND PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS

- 1959 Graduated in Medicine, University of Roma “La Sapienza” and specialized in Liver and Metabolic Disease, in Gastroenterology, and Clinical Oncology
- 1967-1979 Staff member and then Assistant Director at the Cancer Prevention Center “Regina Elena” and Director of the Gastroenterology Unit, at the National Cancer Institute “Regina Elena”, Roma, Italy
- 1980-2002 Director of the Cancer Prevention Center and Head of the Gastroenterology Section, “Regina Elena” National Cancer Institute

ACADEMIC POSITIONS

- 1966-2002 Professor in the Institute of Medical Therapy, University of Rome “La Sapienza” and Professor of Gastrointestinal Endoscopy, Postgraduate School of Gastroenterology
- 1960-1966 Resident at the Liver and Metabolic Diseases Unit, University of Rome

SCIENTIFIC AND HONORARY POSITIONS

- 1979-1982 Director of the Italian Section of the WHO Collaborating Center for Stomach Cancer and Member of the Panel of Experts for Cancer of WHO
- 1988-1992 President of the European Society of Gastrointestinal Endoscopy (ESGE)
- 1999-2005 Responsible for the Technical Secretariat of the World Organization of Digestive Endoscopy (OMED)
- 1996-1998 President of the World Organization of Digestive Endoscopy (OMED)
- 2000-2005 Member of the Scientific Committee of the Italian Cancer League
- 2007-on Secretary General of the Mediterranean Task Force for Cancer Control (MTCC)

- Fellow and Member of the Executive Committee of the Collegium Ramazzini
  - Honorary Member of the French, Hungarian, Polish and Slovak Societies of Gastroenterology.
  - Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians (London).
  - Past Vice-President of the Italian Society of Gastroenterology (SIGE) and the Italian Society of Digestive Endoscopy (SIED).
  - Honorary Member of the American Society of Gastrointestinal Endoscopy (ASGE) and Fellow and past Governor of the American College of Gastroenterology (ACG).
  - Past-Chairman of the United European Gastroenterology Federation (UEGF).
  - Member of the Editorial Board of the Journals, “Digestive Endoscopy (Japan)”, “Scandinavian Journal of Gastroenterology” and “Arab Journal of Gastroenterology”.
- Author of 225 scientific papers in Italian and international Journals mostly related to GI cancer primary and secondary prevention.