ESGE Postgraduate Grants: Past, Present and Expectations

One of ESGE's goals has always been to disseminate high quality endoscopic practice and training. Every year, ESGE has enabled 10 endoscopists to visit well recognized European centers through the Postgraduate Grant Program. As of 2011, ESGE Grants have been extended to include three modules: "Basic", "Advanced" and "Endoscopy Unit Directors Module".

As one of the 2009 Postgraduate Grant Program winners, I can clearly denote that this program offers extensive benefits for the attending endoscopist. The ESGE Training Center in Copenhagen, Denmark provides throughout education in the field of diagnostic and interventional endoscopic ultrasonography (EUS), alongside the other advanced interventional endoscopic procedures. Hands-on practice and supervision by Professor Peter Vilmann, the renowned master of linear EUS, gives you the opportunity to develop your skills and build a strong experience in a relatively short time. In the cooperative atmosphere of Gentoft Hospital, this training period adds valuable experience for future practice beyond dispute.

It is desirable to expand ESGE educational activities in the near future. Potential options can be; increasing the number of grant recipients, organization of new grant programs in specific areas such as ultrasonography or motility in collaboration with other scientific organizations like European Federation of Societies for Ultrasound in Medicine and Biology (EFSUMB) or Society for Neurogastroenterology and Motility, respectively. Providing travel grants for hands-on training workshops on biologic models can be another option.

Sincerely,
Can GONEN, MD
