Quality in Endoscopy: ERCP Symposium – a successful start!

ESGE's newly introduced series of mono-thematic multidisciplinary symposia was successfully launched recently in Munich with the Quality in Endoscopy: ERCP symposium.

Paul Fockens, chairman of the Quality in Endoscopy: ERCP symposium and ESGE President Elect.

Attendees from 46 countries enjoyed lectures from both senior experts and from the promising upcoming younger generation. Additionally, debates, case presentations and discussion sessions with voting made for a very lively, interactive event.

Horst Neuhaus, ESGE President and speaker, in discussion with Paul Fockens.

In a survey conducted directly after the symposium 98% agreed that the program was well designed, and that the topics in sensible relation. More than 90% confirmed that they plan to take part in future meetings.

Paul Fockens, ESGE Chairman, stated "We are extremely happy with the meeting outcome. The components, together with the inspiring atmosphere of interdisciplinary, made it a resounding success".
