

ESGE News and Upcoming Events

April 2018

ESGE Days 2018

April 19–21, 2018
Budapest, Hungary

There is still time to be part of ESGE Days 2018

With two weeks until the launch of ESGE Days 2018, you can still register online at www.esgedays.org.

Onsite check-in will be available from Wednesday, April 18 (from 1600).

New additions to the ESGE Days 2018 programme!

At ESGE we do our best to take on requests and suggestions of our individual and dual members as well as our congress participants. The core days of ESGE Days 2018 are Friday and Saturday April 20th and 21th, but we heard that many of you would be interested in attending more sessions on Thursday, April 19. We have been working with our faculty to make this happen for you.

We are pleased to announce that in addition to the HSGE programme, Academic Skills Course, hands-on training and ESGE Membership Society Forums, the following sessions will be offered on Thursday, April 19, 2018:

Superficial neoplastic lesions of the digestive tract

- Diagnosis in the upper digestive tract: Esophagus and stomach
- Diagnosis in the lower digestive tract
- Treatment options

We look forward to welcoming you to Budapest!

For more information, please visit the website: www.esgedays.org

Applications for 2019 ESGE Fellowship programme now open!

ESGE Fellowship grants are available to fully trained endoscopists for further training in highly specialized endoscopic techniques.

The programme is open to ESGE individual and dual members under the age of 40. Two levels of training are offered: basic training with experts and advanced training with hands-on for specific techniques.

For more information and online application, please visit www.esge.com

Application deadline:
June 15, 2018
